V. Communications and /or Presentation:

Madeline Brumberg (Pronouns: She/Her/Hers) Project Manager – Vermont, New Hampshire, will talk about the New Hampshire Center for Women & Enterprise, a non-profit funded by the SBA to help those who identify as women start, grow and expand their businesses. Their focus is the underserved, as well as immigrant and new Americans. They want to see if there is anything they can provide the community by way of support, and are looking at expanding their Spanish speaking programs whilst actively recruiting board members, instructors and consultants so that there is more representation for those they serve. CWE also has covid funding opportunities and resources that may be available to small business owners.

VI. Old Business:

V11. New Business: CCC Welcoming Week Celebrations in September 2021.

V111. Other Business: Donna Marceau on the importance of the Gate City Bike Co-op to getting transportation to low or no income residents.
