Attached is an application for a signage change at 9 Main St., the former Collins Flowers building. We propose utilizing the same wall area as well as hanging a sign on the existing sign bracket. Letters are flat cut out $\frac{3}{4}$ " PVC painted with two shades of green and stud mounted to the exterior wall in the same location as previous letters. The projecting sign is an oval shape cut from $\frac{3}{4}$ " PVC painted light grey to match building siding and lettered with computer cut vinyl lettering.

Submittals with this application:

Historic District Application

8 copies of the existing conditions, proposed sign with dimensions, and pictures of the location of the new signs on the building.

Sample of $\frac{3}{4}$ " PVC being used for the cutout letters 1 sample of a cutout PVC letter painted
And color samples of proposed letters and background color of hanging sign
