RESOLUTION

HONORING LYNN OUELLETTE AS THE RECIPIENT OF THE EARLY CHILDHOOD PROFESSIONAL AWARD

CITY OF NASHUA

In the Year Two Thousand and Five

RESOLVED by the Board of Aldermen of the City of Nashua that

WHEREAS, Lynn Ouellette has been working in the early childhood field for 24 years and is a NH Qualified Director for Small Work Country Day School in Nashua. Lynn is NH credentialed at “Director Level 1” and has completed the NPSAG Private School Administrator Program. She is a “Mary Stuart Gile Awardee” awarded by the NH DCYF. She has also been awarded the Rotary Club of Nashua West Exemplary Worker Recognition Award for 1999, 2001, and 2002.

WHEREAS, Lynn Ouellette is the finest child advocate in Nashua. She is known for her understanding of and respect for young children. She is a model professional for her colleagues at Small World. She has been a principal contributor to the success of the culture at Small World. She is a leader and offers a positive influence within the work place. She continually strives to improve on programs at Small World in order to provide the highest quality of care. Her colleagues in the City agree children and families have benefited from Lynn’s leadership.

WHEREAS, Lynn Ouellette has been a strong supporter and long-time member of the Early Childhood Care and Education Network. Within this context, she has dedicated endless hours to enhance the quality of early childhood care in Nashua. She has been faithful in partnering with the Network, the Child Care Advisory Commission, and the Child Care Services Office in presenting the annual Week of the Young Child. Her energy is constant. The City of Nashua has been enriched by her dedication to the issues of child care. Without professionals of this caliber, our community would be the lesser for it.

WHEREAS, Lynn Ouellette shares the professional vision of rising to the challenge faced by the child care community, both nationwide and in New Hampshire. Lynn cares deeply for children and their daily lives. This award is a testimony to her respect for others and her dedication to the early childhood profession. For her skill, talent, creativity, and commitment, without question, Lynn Ouellette is deserving of the City of Nashua’s Early Childhood Professional Award.

NOW THEREFORE, Mayor Bernard A. Streeter and the Board of Aldermen on behalf of the citizens of Nashua, express their thanks and appreciation to one of their own, Lynn Ouellette, for her generous commitment to the City of Nashua.
