

ORDINANCE

MOVING PARKING ENFORCEMENT TO THE OFFICE OF ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT IN THE MAYOR'S OFFICE

CITY OF NASHUA

In the Year Two Thousand and Seventeen

The City of Nashua ordains that Part I “Administrative Legislation”, Chapter 5 “Administration of Government” Part 3 “Administrative Code”, Article V “Office of the Mayor”, Section 5-38 “Staff, powers and duties” of the Nashua Revised Ordinances as amended, is hereby further amended by adding the new underlined language as follows:

“§ 5-38. Staff; powers and duties.

The Mayor’s staff shall consist of those individuals as he shall determine necessary to perform the following functions:

C. Economic development. The mission of the Mayor's economic development function is to promote a diversified, sustainable and vibrant economic base that maintains a high quality of life for Nashua residents and businesses. The Mayor shall appoint, with the consent of the Board of Aldermen, a Director of Economic Development. The Director of Economic Development shall report to the Mayor. He/she shall have overall responsibility for developing programs to enhance the economic vitality of the City including maintenance of strong communications between the business community and the City; fostering opportunities for job retention and existing business expansion; promoting expansion of the labor force; promoting employment diversity and growth through new business recruitment; encouraging the continued enhancement and vitality of downtown Nashua as the focal point of the community and a desirable place to live, work, shop and conduct social discourse; and oversight and management of public parking lots, garages and meters and parking enforcement. In addition the Director shall also undertake such special studies, projects, and other related duties as may be assigned by the Mayor to promote economic development; undertake or assist in the development and implementation of intermediate and long-range plans for the economic development and improvement of the City; and maintain up-to-date statistics on the economic conditions of the City.”

All ordinances or parts of ordinances inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.
This legislation shall take effect on January 1, 2018.
