PROGRAM DESCRIPTIONS

Participants can expect to learn about safety, proper shooting form, proper use of equipment, tournament rules, scoring procedures, and sportsmanship. Below are more specific descriptions of each session.

Youth/Teen Archery

This program is for those individuals who have never shot a bow or who have limited experience. Participants will learn basic shooting form, safety procedures and participate in a variety of archery games.

Family Archery

This program is for both experienced and non-experienced teens and adults who would like to learn to shoot a bow. Participants will learn about Olympic style archery and will compete in a variety of competitions. Lessons will cover tournament rules, scoring procedures, use of a sight, sportsmanship and a schedule of upcoming tournaments.

Level Two Archery

Must have taken Archery classes through Nashua Parks & Recreation and/or NE School of Archery to sign up. Due to Bow Restrictions at camp, all equipment is provided.
