PROGRAM DESCRIPTIONS

Red Ball

These fun play-based clinics are designed for 4-8 year olds looking to start a lifetime of tennis. We focus in class on motor skills, agility as well as racket skills.

Orange Ball

Players begin to develop a solid foundation for their game with an emphasis on consistency and core fundamentals including grips, racquet preparation, movement and stroke production.

Green Ball

Players build on skills taught in orange ball. Players are introduced to tactics and strategy, along with more advanced strokes. Players are expected to sustain a rally in this class.

High School

This program is designed for players that are currently playing junior varsity tennis or are 9th graders looking to make their high school team and want to shape and refine their game. The curriculum is designed to focus on match play to get the high school player ready for the season.
