Disadvantaged Business Enterprise (DBE) Program

Are you a female or minority owned small business? You may be eligible for DBE certification! The Disadvantaged Business Enterprise (DBE) program is a federally funded program administered by the Federal Transit Administration and is intended to provide contracting opportunities to small businesses owned by socially and economically disadvantaged groups and individuals.

Program Benefits:

There are many benefits to becoming a certified DBE, including:

- Free business development services.
- Access to training & networking opportunities.
- Compete for federal contracts on a level playing field.
- Receive bidding information for upcoming projects.
- A business listing in the state's DBE directory to help your company gain access to even more contract opportunities.
